The Alexandria Gazette, begun in 1790, is the oldest newspaper in Virginia, and it has survived, with few exceptions, all the public presses in Am rice which saw with it the dawn of the nineteenth century. It lives too, not in decay or decrepat, but full of life and youthful vigor, giving all the news, telling the truth without fear, favor or affection, trenching on the privacy of no man's home, but full to the brim with all public information, and giving daily honest judgments of public men and public measures.

It furnishes the news telegrams of the New York Associated Press and of Reuter's Euronean agency, being, with but two exceptions, the only paper between Baltimore and Eichmond that is thus connected with the great fountsins of the world's news.

With the coming year all the long tried and improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued, with such additional facilities as past experience justifies the proprietor in believing will add to the capacity of the Gazette to serve its readers. It expects to render faithful service to the city, the state and the country by a candid criticism of men and events in the interest of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

The year 1880 will be a period of critical interest in both the Union and the Commonwealth. The election of the eighteenin President of the United States will take place, with all the combinations procedent, and counts; consequences and settlements subsequent, will call for record in the coming volume. The developments of the flasheis! situation, which may portend affluonce and comfort or poverty and privation to thousands, are now in progress, and the columns of the Gazette will note each step as well as chronicle the result. A new and striking fereign policy is among likely events, and the absorbing interest of it cannot be overestimated. In Virginis there is political chars and industrial and commercial depression. The way out of this quagnice will fill many of those paragraphs with information of rare interest.

To meet all the demands upon it in an exceptional year, the Gazette will be made a WASH-INGTON and RICHMOND NEWSPAPER, as well as an ALEXANDRIA JOURNAL. The Richmond and Washington news of the past year has left little to improve, but yet greater effort will be made to insure absolute perfection in these departments.

Tancity of Alexandria with find as usual its daily history in each evening's issue, and the intelligence of that section of the Common wealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the curvature of its mountains or the courses of its rivers as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, will be assiduously chronicled

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazette will be filled with the earliest and most exact commercial news, edited with such painstaking carrias will render an error, where even slight errors dangerous impossible.

The Cattle Markets of all the leading points of the world whose rates affect this market will be quoted, and regular statements of the Baltimore, Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria sales of estile will appear.

The Flour, Grain and Produce movements will be noted daily, and the sales of the Alexandria and neighboring markets given with accursey and dispatch. The Grocery and other markets will receive constant attention, and the money or stock markets of the country epitomized for its columns, full details being given to all stocks, &c , which find investors in this section of the country.

The advertising columns of the Gazette effer inducements which experience has shown to afford greater returns for a small investment than any other which can be made.

TERMS OF SUBSURIPTION.

Claimants for an Estate.

About one year ago the Star published an account of the case of the estate of Robert V. Harrison in the Probate Court on petition of Miss Hamilton and Mrs. Duering, claiming to be beirs of the estate, which case was decided adversely to the petitioners. Harrison, who died in May, 1877, at a house on Ohio avenue. had lived here all his life with Mrs. Harrison, who lived on New York avenue, near 15th st.; C street, between 10th and 11th, and 13th st., near D, and who bore the reputation of keeping a house of ill-repute. He was supposed by many to be ber son, and, netwithstanding his carina whatever. He learned the trade of cachmaker with the McDermotts, but did not work at it after he was tree. He was, however, a member of the old Auxiliary Guard, the police force of Washington in ante-bellum days, but frequently remarked that he need not work as the old worms had enough for him to line.

The night sweats have left me, the cough has disappeared, and I have gained fifteen pounds in flesh. I recommend it to all my friends. With great respect, OLIVER RICE. carion whatever. He learned the trade of as the old woman had enough for him to live on. "Bob" Harrison, as he was generally call ed, died in the house where Mrs. Harrison died in 1872. He lett considerable persons! estate-about $6,000 it is said-and Dr. J. F. Harigan, who attended him in his illness. baving as a creditor obtained administration of the estate advertised for the heirs. As stated above Miss Hamilton and sister put in a claim, which last January was decided adversely to them by Judge Olio, and they then filed issues to be tried by jury, but noth ing further has been done in their case. The claim of those parties was that Mrs. Harrisco was a daughter of Edward Hamilton, a brother to their father. Eben T. Hamilton, of Ludous county, Va. government claimed in this case that Mrs. Har-rison was "Cinthy" Ashlord, of Alexandria, who with her sister, fell late loose ways while working at the cotton factory near Four Mile Rue; that she became the mistress of Mr. Harrison, and stior living with him a few years in Alexandria, came to this city and opened a TUTT'S PILLS house of assignation; that the younger sister A G was the mother of "Bob" Harrison by Robert Piles. Ratherford and finding berself poor she confided the child (Bob) to her sister, and subsequently She joined Rutherford in the South, and nothing was afterward heard of them.

Gray Hair or Whiskers changed to was afterward heard of them.

New claimants than appeared-Murphy and others-who in their petition claimed that Jane A. Murphy, Mary F. Fox and Anna Chasseen are the children and heirs at law of Rachel Cas seen, daughter of Thomas Ashford, brother of Nancy Ashford, Nancy, they claim, was Mrs. Harrison. To support this claim, Mr. A. D. Frezier testified that he lived at Four Mill Run in 1820, and Tom Ashford married a Miss Hoskins; that Tom's sister, Nancy, camo to Washington, and he never saw her again until some years afterwards, when she came into Lawyer Brent's office and asked for money to bay shoes. T. H. Glover testified that he knew Nancy at Four Mile Ran, and also in this city, whou she kept house for Mr. Beent and was known as Mrs. Moore; that her busband's name was Sandy Moore and the boy's name George Moore; that he was born in 1823; saw tim just before Harrison's inauguration. Rich. A. Kudd testified that he knew Nace, Ashford and beard that she had a child and came to Washington. Jace Da Neal swore that she knew Mrs. Ashford and her children, and had seen Cynthia on the corner of 12th and E sts.; that she was first known as Cynthia Dawes; had heard her called Harrison; saw Nacoy at 12th and E streets. John T. Arm strong testified that the Ashfords (the mother and her daughters Nancy and Cinthy) lived near the old Diagonal pump in Alexandria in 1817 or '18, and it was common report that Nancy had a child, a boy, by Rutherford, who was called "Tom." Mr. Jos. H. Bradley testified that Nancy Moore several years before 1840 was the reputed mistress of W. L. Brent, the lawyer. S. C. Mills testified that he knew Bob Harrison as far back as 1843, and that Mrs. Harrison, with whom Bob lived, was supposed to be his mother. For the Government it was testified that Mrs. Moore lived with Col. Brent on 12th and E streets; that her boy, George, went to Henry Ould's school and had a good education, and studied law in Mr. Brent's office; that Mrs. Harrison was unlike Mrs. Moora. Mrs. Jackson testified that Mrs. Moore, who lived with Col. Bront, dealt with her, and she speke of her boy going to school; knew Bob Barrison well, and saw him about ten days before he died. John Hudson testified that he knew Mrs. Harrison as Tilley Harrison, and knew the son all his life; also knew Mrs. Moore and her son George, who studied law in Mr. Brent's office; thinks that be was a member of the bar. Vivian Brent testified that he knew Nancy Moore who left Washington in 1844 and

The case was receptly argued before Judge MacArthur holding the Probate Court, and the government argued that Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Harr son were not ki h or kin, neither were the boys George Moore and Thos. Harristo; that Mrs. Moore was not an Ashford at all before marriage, but a Dawes. - Washington Star.

New York, Sept. 19, 1877.

Dr. Tutt: Dear Sir—During this year I treated nine hundred cases of lung diseases. In the lower wards of the city the cases were of a very severe type. It was there my attention was called to Tutt's Expectorant, and I confess my surprise at its wonderful power. During a present called to Tutt's Expectorant, and I confess my surprise at its wonderful power. During a practice of twenty years I have never known a medicine to act as premptly and with such happy effects. It instantly subdued the most violent fits of coughing, and invariably cured the disease in a few days. I cheerfully endorse it as the best lung medicine I ever used.

A NEWSPAPER PUBLISHER WRITES: Office Evening News, Augusts, Ga.
Dr. Tutt: Dear Sir—My little son was attacked with pneumonia last winter, which left him with a violent cough that lasted till within a month since, for the cure of which I am indebt ed to your valuable Expectorant. I had tried most everything recommended, but none did any good until I used your Expectorant, one bottle of which removed the cough entirely. With many thanks, I am yours truly,

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS.

REPORTANT QUESTIONS.

Reader, have you caught a cold? Are you unable to raise the phlegm? Have you an irritation in the throat? A sense of oppression on the lungs, with short breath? Do you have a fit of coughing on lying down? A sharp pain now and then in a region of the heart, shoulders and back? IF SO, OUR ADVICE IS to take at once a dose of Tutt's Expectorant; you will soon be able to raise the phlegm. In an hour soon be able to raise the phlegm. In an hour repest the Expectorant, place a hot iron to the feet take two of Tutt's Pills. You will soon fall into a pleasant sleep and wake up in the morning cough gone, lungs working freely; oasy breathing and the bowels moving in a natural manner. To prevent a return of these symptoms use the Expectorant several days, Oilice, 35 MURRAY ST., N. YORK.
